Join Worship Associate Lola Davis-Jones and Guest Speakers/Musicians Penny Whitehurst Adams and Zoe Mandas for the service entitled: "How Are the Gays?". "How Are The Gays?"

Penny shares, "You have heard and seen the "How are the Children" bumper stickers. In "How are the Gays" I will explore how the LGBTQ+ children, teens, adults and older adults are doing in today's world. I will share some insight gained from attending the International Lesbian and Gay Conference in California, from my time as the LGBTQ+ Services Specialist for the Outer Banks Hotline and from raising two LGBTQ+ children with my wife, Tess."

Penny, friend of the UUCOB, former LGBTQ+ Services Specialist at the Outer Banks Hotline, and attendee of the International Lesbian Gay Convention in California, will give a world-wide perspective on the current state of LGBTQ+ people.

Minister's Message

I was reminded last week in Montgomery that so much of the bus boycott and so much of the civil rights movement generally was drenching in community. Community support. Community training. Cooking for each other. Listening to each other. Adjusting plans and making new pathways, together.

When have you felt an amazing sense of community? An amazing sense of belonging? Where were you? What was the occasion? What were the dynamics that made that sense of belonging possible?

I crossed the Edmund Pettus bridge alone, last weekend. But I felt a whole energetic field of folks, known and unknown, who had walked that bridge before.

See you in just a few weeks now. I hope you are enjoying your Monday blessings. I hope to hear your story when I'm in North Carolina.

In faith,

Reverend Roger
