

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of the Outer Banks September 21, 2023

This Week's Service

Sunday, September 24th at 10:30 am
In-Person & streamed live from the sanctuary via Zoom

Please join Rev. Roger on Zoom and Worship Associate Gwen Taylor as they discuss the fast growing effort of conservative groups organizing to ban books under the guise of "parental rights" and protecting innocent children. These books are overwhelmingly by or about black and/or LGBTQ2+ authors. What's up with this effort? And what can progressives do to counter this growing movement?

If you choose to join us online this Sunday: FOLLOW THIS LINK.
Meeting ID: 838 0045 3066
Passcode: 097426

To join by phone (audio only): 1 301 715 8592

This month, a portion of all Sunday morning offerings will be donated to Mustang Music Outreach.

If you are not able to attend the service in-person, you may contribute HERE.

Community News

Shout out to UUCOB member Haley Heard! Haley is the newest intern at The Outer Banks Visitors Bureau. Haley is a rising Junior at Manteo High School. She has taken many photography classes and plans on pursuing more next year.

She also is co-owner of a small business, where she spends her free time crafting jewelry. At school she has participated in Cross Country, Track, Photography Club, Mathletes and the Student Environmental Action Coalition (SEAC).

Social Justice Action Opportunity

Give it a try and ZOOM in to Action Hour. "UU Justice NC lives into our mission as a prophetic, but not partisan non-profit through advocacy for specific legislation that creates more equity, and affirms the worth and dignity of all people. advocating for Medicaid, fighting Expansion voter suppression, and anti-transgender bills, etc.). We work to hold elected officials accountable but never endorse political candidates. This is consistent with the work of our larger UU faith, and is within the legal parameters of both our organization and UU congregations."
