Rev. David: "Do You Hear"

This Sunday: Join us online for this week's service, streamed live from the UUCOB Meetinghouse and led by Rev. David Morris, Worship Associate Lola Davis-Jones, and Musician Nancy Byrne.

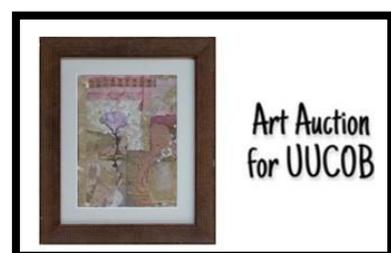

This week: "Do You Hear?" When we listen to another person deeply, we hear more than their words—we begin to catch a glimpse of their heart. When we listen deeply to our own life, what do we hear?

Grief Group Begins – Friday, October 23 at 1:30

The first meeting of our new Grief Group, a monthly gathering for conversation, exploration, and companionship with those who have experienced the death of a loved one, will be next Friday, October 23rd, at 1:30 PM at the Meetinghouse. This in-person group has limited attendance; however, anyone interested is strongly encouraged to contact Rev. David. In a time of grief, there can be no more powerful sustaining companionship than others who have known the deep sorrow and slow healing of loss. Whether a loss is recent or not, grief flows in spirals and it can be helpful at many different stages of loss to make contact with companions on the journey. Rev. David will facilitate this group.

Rev. David's Quote of the Week

Howard Thurman (1899 - 1981) wrote:

"There must always be remaining in every person's life some place for the singing of angels, some place for that which in itself is breathtakingly beautiful. . . The commonplace is shot through with glory; old burdens become lighter; deep and ancient wounds lose much of their old, old hurting. . . Despite all the crassness of life, despite all the hardness of life, despite all the harsh discords of life, life is saved by the singing of angels."

Where in your life is the place for "the singing of angels," the "breathtakingly beautiful"? In these next few weeks, we will all have a deep need for this place in which to keep our spirits strong and to sustain our courage and our love of life.
